GLORY DENIED

EAST COAST PREMIERE OF THE FULLY ORCHESTRATED VERSION

December 5–8

8:00 P.M., THURSDAY–SATURDAY
2:00 P.M., SUNDAY
BOSTON CONSERVATORY THEATER
31 HEMENWAY STREET, BOSTON

Presenting the East Coast premiere of the fully orchestrated version, Glory Denied is a contemporary opera based on the true story of America’s longest held prisoner of war. For mature audiences, due strong language and depictions of violence and mental illness, including PTSD.

Music and libretto by TOM CIPULLO
Based on the oral history Glory Denied by TOM PHILPOTT
Conducted by ANDREW ALTENBACH
Directed by JOHNATHON PAPE

LIMITED-TIME SPECIAL:
$5 tickets available November 25 through December 2. Purchase online at: bostonconservatory.berklee.edu/glory-denied